

There can be a variety of events or purchases for which a professions firm requires funding. These can be a major event, such as an acquisition or merger, or a minor event, such as the purchase of some office equipment.

Major event or minor purchase, these can all be funded with a loan from Key Business Finance. Below are a few examples of what firms have used a Key Business Finance loan for:

- To fund an acquisition
- To provide working capital through a merger process
- To provide working capital for a marketing campaign
- Provision of capital to an incoming partner and the provision of funding to allow an outgoing partner to exit a firm
- Human resources – staff training fees and new staff recruitment fees
- Motor – car purchase, motor insurance premium finance
- Office – general insurance premium finance, office equipment finance, office refurbishment, IT and telecoms system purchase, office equipment purchases, DX subscriptions and annual car parking fees.
